A child ridiculed for his weight, a son overshadowed by a favored brother, a husband who falls short of his wife's ambitions, an old man with a broken heart... As Orbit's life passes, he doggedly pursues a simple dream — a little place in the country where a family might thrive — while wondering if he can ever shake free of the tragedies that seem to define him.

The Melting Queen by Bruce Cinnamon - NeWest Press- 978-1-9887-3250-3- TPB- $20.95- Fiction- 300 pp.- April 2019

Every year since 1904, when the ice breaks up on the North Saskatchewan River, Edmonton has crowned a Melting Queen--a woman who presides over the Melting Day spring carnival and who must keep the city's spirits up over the following winter. But this year, something has changed: a genderfluid ex-frat brother called River Runson is named as Melting Queen. As River's reign upends the city's century-old traditions, Edmonton tears itself in two, with progressive and reactionary factions fighting a war for Edmonton's soul.

The Expectations by Alexander Tilney- Little, Brown- 978-0-316-45037-9- HC- $35.00- Fiction- 320 pp.- July 2019

St. James is an exclusive New England boarding school known for grooming generations of leaders. Ben is a true insider--his family were founders, his older brother was a campus legend, and he commands awe on the squash court. But after fourteen long years of waiting, Ben arrives at school only to find that the reality of St. James doesn't quite match up with his imaginings.

Everything is Just Fine by Brett Paesel- Grand Central- 978-1-5387-4564-9- HC- $36.50- Fiction- 432 pp.- April 2019

Coach Randy is working mightily to keep it together, and not simply with his vaguely unhappy wife, distant child, and a new boss who's eliminating half the sales force. This season's Beverly Hills soccer parents are a demanding bunch. All the secrets and lies bubbling below the surface of their membrane-thin civility threaten to combust when Alejandro, a young, foreign assistant coach refuses to play by the Beverly Hills code, which is to mind your own business and don't look too deeply into anyone's soul. Especially your own.

Bad Ideas by Missy Marston - ECW Press- 978-1-77041-461-7- TPB- $18.95- Fiction- 224 pp.- April 2019

Trudy works nights in a linen factory, avoiding romance and sharing the care of her four-year-old niece with Trudy's mother, Claire. Claire still pines for Trudy's father, a St. Lawrence Seaway construction worker who left her twenty years ago. Claire believes in true love. Trudy does not. She's keeping herself to herself. But when Jules Tremblay, aspiring daredevil, walks into the Jubilee restaurant, Trudy's a goner.

Paper Lions by Sohan Koonar - Mawenzi House- 978-1-9884-4977-7- TPB- $23.95- Fiction- 240 pp.- June 2019

Told from three distinct points of view, Paper Lions is an epic multi-generational novel of India from just before the Second World War to the 1960s. Its characters--Bikram, Basanti, and Ajit and their families and children--endure heartbreaks, despair, and insurmountable challenges often leading to poignant, tragic, or exhilarating moments and rare wins. Yet they find a way to continue.
